MURDER IN THE SECOND DEGREE.

JAMES McILVOY CONVICTED ON TUESDAY EVENING.

The McIlvoy murder case from Tunuelhill borough was taken up in court on Tuesday morning and occupied the attention of the court all day.

The jury was impaneled with little difficulty. Out of twenty-five men called, the ollowing were selected: Paul Pringle, Frank Stophel, John S. Davis, Tobias Moody, Samuel Arthurs, Harry L. Horner, O. C. Hansom, Jacob Miller, George C. Diehl, John Fritz, John Rinepolt and Matthew Copelin. Patrick Boylen was the first witness called and testified as follows: "I was nome during the afternoon of Saturday, August 18, 1894. Between the hours of 3 and 4 o'clock I heard two shots fired folowed in a few seconds by a third. After a short period of quiet I heard a fourth shot. I went out on the street and met James McIlyoy, who told me they had a fuss at his brother's home. I went over to his brother's and found Tillie McIlvoy on the landing of the stairs. Blood was pozing from a bullet wound in her neck. She breathed her last while I was there," Other witnesses told substantially the

The defense claimed that James McHcoy, the murderer, was frunk that day and had gone to bed. When he awoke he drew his revolver and fired into the ceiling. His wife asked Joe, his brother, to take the revolver from him, and, in the scuffle that ensued, it was discharged and the bullet found lodgment in the woman's neck. Several witnesses supported this

The jury, after being about two hours, ound a verdict acquitting Joseph McIlvoy and finding James McIlvoy guilty of murder in the second degree.

The latter was much dejected at the resuit of the trial, and while on his way back to the jail, remarked to the officer that his conviction was "a d-d shame."

Mr. Thomas Doran, of Summerbill township, met with an accident on Wednesday of last week, in which he was badkilled. He was taking a threshing machine to a neighbor's and in descending a steep hill was joited from his seat and thrown between the horses. The team immediately started to run and Mr. Doran was dragged a considerable distance and was unconscious when picked up. He was taken to his home where an examination showed that besides a number of cuts and bruises about his head and body, one of his fingers was broken. Later information says that Mr. Doran is rapidly recovering and will soon be abie to be about again. -During the storm on Sunday afternoon lightning struck one of the wires of the this place, whose office is in J. D.
